INSTRUCTIONS FOR FINANCIAL SUMMARY (AUGUST 1 – JULY 31)

Fill out both columns (located on the next page of this application) according to these instructions. If you were not a student this year, you must still complete both columns.

- 1. Academic Loans and Savings/Investments: Enter all outstanding student loans for you and your spouse if applicable. This includes any undergraduate, graduate or professional school education. You must include documentation of any loans consisting of a Bursar bill indicating payments made, bank statements of loans or a letter from your financial aid office indicating accepted loans.
- 2. Indicate school, your living situation for both years and the anticipated persons included in the financial summary.
- 3. Academic Expenses: Enter the amount spent this current year and anticipated for next year for your academic expenses. This includes tuition, fees, books, supplies, transportation, and any additional academic expenses. You must provide documentation of your tuition/fees from your indicated school through information printed by the school or posted on the school's website. Other Academic Expenses: Consider new computers or equipment, certification exams, travel to exams or special events and professional association fees/conferences.
- 4. Annual Living Expenses: Enter the amount spent on this current year and anticipated for next year for your living expenses. Consider including assessments/association dues if applicable. Utilities may include electricity, cable, satellite or streaming TV, cell phones, internet access, water or other bills. Health insurance costs should include anything spent out-of-pocket by the student. Clothes & Laundry may include costs for clothing purchases and maintenance including dry cleaning. Under Miscellaneous, you should include any expenses not accounted for in other areas such as recreation activities, gym memberships, credit card/debt payments, tuition of children or other payments for dependents. If an amount is entered in Miscellaneous, you must specify what is included.
- 5. Resources: Enter the amount you put towards your academic expenses and living expenses this year and anticipate for next year. Enter the amount if you have spent any of your savings on your current year or anticipate spending savings next year. Your earnings and spouse's earnings should reflect your net earnings as indicated on your provided tax return. You may estimate for next year based on past or projected earnings. Any help from your parents should be indicated including any help from a spouse's parents if applicable. If you have received a scholarship for this year or anticipate a scholarship for next year, indicate it here. You must provide documentation of any scholarships. If you are not guaranteed the scholarship for next year, which includes the Federation Scholarships, enter "0" for next year. Any additional resources not accounted for in the other areas should be entered under Other Resources. Consider including financial gifts (excluding parents), inheritance, grants or assistance from your community. If an amount is entered in Other Resources, please specify the source.
- 6. Please indicate the total amount borrowed in student loans for the current academic year if applicable and estimate your anticipated borrowing for the next academic year. The number for the current year should be reflected in the documentation provided for your total loans.
- 7. Transportation: Indicate whether you will use public transportation or a car (or both) by placing an "X" with the appropriate mode of transportation. You must indicate a make, model and year if car is selected.
